Please list any conflicts you have between now and May 10th below. If there are days or times you are unavailable to rehearse on a regular basis, please also list those. If you have preferred rehearsal days, please go ahead and list those as well. We will use this information to build a rehearsal schedule that strives not to waste anyone's time, so please be as accurate as possible. Please note that everyone must attend every rehearsal beginning on April 28th unless worked out with the director in advance. The show will run for one weekend - May 9 & 10. Rehearsals will typically be scheduled for M, T, & Th evenings.
